

Things My Acupuncturist Says

by Darcy Shargo

These points here / are amidst elegance. / And it's like our bodies / are inside a gallant horse. Can you find a way out? / How is this working—the Cloud Gate/the frontier pass or checkpoint / the closed-up locket lying/unexplored? We need to find / your marrow:
primary / vitals / "the heart pit" that is a great / unlimited sea with sand and blood driven by/ courtships
with the wind and with the rose. /
