Choose One:

- Crows stink, but nothin you can do
- Crows are fine.
- I'm offended.
- Going to ignore this one.
- Got a different idea all together.

A crow left of the murder. Incubus.
The first post-modern alt-rock crew to apply "crow" and murder" to an album.
They have the most peculiar vocalizations.
Like waking up to a haunted farm. Jurassic Park.
I picture a planet with crows in charge.
So smart. Are they also spiteful?
They're flying homeless drug addicts.
Where do crows go when it rains?
I would like to get this shit off my car.
Curse you. You noisy beasts.
They are vindictive. Don't shake your fists at them.
Consider the crows' perspective.
